

Honorable James R. Powell
Federal Representative
Southern States Energy Board

Mr. James (Jim) R. Powell is the Federal Representative to the Southern States Energy Board. He is the owner and principal consultant at Norava Consulting, a position he has held since 2007. Prior to forming his own consulting firm, he served in various capacities at the U.S. Department of Energy from 1986 to 2007. These roles included program manager; regional director for the Southeast; and, associate deputy assistant secretary. Mr. Powell held several positions with the U.S. Department of the Navy from 1983 to 1986.