

Jonathan Wood

Jonathan Wood is Vice President of Government and External Affairs for Alpha Natural Resources, one of the nation's leading coal producers. He began his career in Washington in 1981 as an economist/professional staff member of the Senate Democratic Policy Committee. He subsequently served as Legislative Director to Senator Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, prior to becoming Director-Federal Relations for Pacific Telesis Group and Executive Director-State Relations (California) for SBC Communications. Mr. Wood holds a B.A. from the University of Virginia and an M.A. in Economics from the University of Maryland.

Alpha Natural Resources is one of America's premier coal suppliers with affiliate coal production capacity of 126 million tons a year. Alpha is a leading supplier and exporter of metallurgical coal used in the steel-making process and is a major supplier of thermal coal to electric utilities and manufacturing industries across the country. The company, through its affiliates, employs approximately 14,000 people and operates more than 150 mines and 40 coal preparation facilities in the regions of Northern and Central Appalachia and the Powder River Basin. More information about Alpha can be found on the company's website at www.alphanr.com.
